Hi, I'm Eve.

I'm the founder of EC Digital, helping businesses create a stronger, more engaging presence on social media.

Trying to consistently come up with content, write captions, stay on top of trends, understand algorithms and actually find the time to post can quickly become another full-time job.

That's where I come in.

EC Digital provides tailored social media management, content creation and strategy designed around your business, your audience and your goals.

More Than Just Posting

Social media isn't simply about uploading a nice photo and hoping people see it.

It's about having a Strategy behind the content.

EC DIGITAL

My Expertise

Social Media Management
I manage your social presence from planning and content creation, through to schedueling and publishing.

Content Creation
From Reels and carousels to branded graphics and Stories, I create engaging content that resonates with your brand.

Social Media Strategy
I'll create a clear strategy based around your business, audience, and goals - giving your content direction.
